Teacher Reference:

Approaches to Teaching English Pronunciation $44.54

This manual provides a welcome and useful resource to the teachers of English and to speakers of other languages. Many teachers feel unsure about introducing the teaching of pronunciation into their ESOL classrooms, and this book addresses this important aspect of English language teaching.

Value of Intonation in English $40.60

This model of intonation builds on a discourse-based framework and attempts to assign 'meaning' or communicative value to the different elements that make up the system of intonation. Each chapter explores the function of one or more features of the system including the tone unit, prominence, tones, key and orientation. The accompanying cassette contains recordings of intonation features exemplified in the text.

Book $40.60      Cassette $29.95

English Accents and Dialects Bk $41.40

An introduction to social and regional varieties of English in the British Isles. Authors discuss accent and dialect in the broader framework of language variation, including phonetic, phonological, grammatical, lexical and stylistic differences. The accompanying cassette contains edited interview, which are transcribed in the book, with speakers from each of the different areas.

Focus on Speaking $29.95

This is an introductory text on teaching speaking to adult second language learners. It examines different theoretical perspectives on the spoken language and offers practical suggestions for teaching. The chapter covers many areas:

- *the ways in which people learn spoken language in social contexts
- *the processes of producing and negotiating spoken language
- *a historical overview of theoretical approaches which have informed spoken language teaching
- *how to address the speaking needs and goals of students
- *approaches to program planning which integrate the teaching of speaking
- *speaking activities for a range of different learner groups
- *the assessment of the spoken language speech recognition systems. This allows for more accurate assessment of the user's technique and provides instructions and visual displays that are more straightforward than other programs using waveforms or spectrograms. This visual feedback allows a student using EyeSpeak to learn pronunciation efforts faster and more effectively. The technology has major advantages in teaching pronunciation as speakers can not often hear how their pronunciation differs to that of a teacher, and without visual feedback, their errors are never corrected. Feedback is crucial and EyeSpeak uses straightforward plotting system to clearly show how close the student's pronunciation efforts are to the desired style.

EyeSpeak is new, different and effective. This genuinely smart software package gives a students personalised feedback on their pronunciation and teaches how to improve speaking skills rapidly. EyeSpeak is an essential tool for teachers who can easily incorporate it into the curriculum and use it during class time. EyeSpeak is also vital for students who want to practice after class to reinforce their progress and become more confident in their pronunciation. The school version mentioned above is for schools and enables students to practise and improve their pronunciation as well as letting teachers check on their student's progress and keep a record.

Student version at $109.00 also available.

EyeSpeak/ Pronouncing English $250.00
