SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS AND RULES

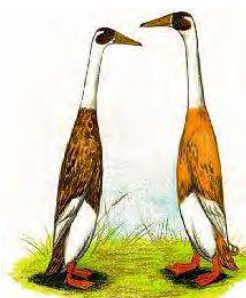

1. Classifications of "rare" breeds are made at the discretion of the Canberra/Queanbeyan Poultry Club and in no way reflect classifications made by any other body or organisation. The exhibitor deems submission of any entry in this competition an acceptance of this rule. Protests or complaints regarding the classification of "rare" breeds based on classifications made by any other body or organisation will not be accepted.
2. Breeds that are deemed "rare" for the purposes of this exhibition are marked in bold italics.
3. Birds in non-rare classes are not eligible for special awards set aside for Rare Breeds.
4. AOC and AC classes are for recognised colours only for which a colour description exists in the Australian Poultry Standard or the Standard from the country of origin for the particular breed.
