Pastoral Records of the Riverina

A collection of microfilmed records of pastoral holdings in the Hay district of New South Wales, Australia

Now available from the Hay Historical Society.

173 fiche, $200 the complete set

The complete set of 173 microfiche comprises 50 volumes of pastoral records. The time frame is from the 1860s until the 1940s, and covers the day-to-day operations of medium and large scale pastoral runs of the western Riverina. The volumes include ledgers, journals and diaries which contain a large amount of detail. There are listings of shearers, wages and employment details for several of the properties.

This provides the researcher with a variety of original documents, a most valuable resource to any student of Riverine history. A number of the documents are indexed. The set may be purchased complete, or as individual portions. Prices, with packing and postage (within Australia), are as follows -
